

I was quite excited to take on this team. It was even better as it was MCC only, the stuff I knew pretty well as I spent a lot of time there. Except Orion... ugh. This team was excellent. Shy, at first, but good energy/crazy people! I would meet one of the sweetest, kind, smart, amazing, hard-working, and certainly one of the most beautiful girls I have ever met: <Margot> Whew... I was immediately attracted to her. <redacted> came back! Good ole <redacted> would become very useful @ USSRC and of course... <Roslyn>. Oh man, this girl. She made working, not work. And she had the same drive as <Margot>. Those two working together was 100% legit. <redacted> was so quiet and <redacted> would cause so many issues later on. Worked out though. Training was quickly a riot <redacted> Seeing <Margot> work only made her more attractive! <redacted> even tried a few times to set us up (THANK YOU!) of course, I learned that my luck really is that bad... She was already taken! <redacted> Some days were definitely longer than most, but they caught on quickly. They were all excited, especially the all-stars. Around training, the night simulations supervisor position opened, and an MCC Lead. <redacted> suggested I apply. I messed with the idea for a while and even asked Mom/Dad for advice... Then I realized it was a direct route to overhauling AA MCC completely. I applied.
